

Understanding Commercially Sexually Exploited Girls

*A Training Presented by the
My Life My Choice Social Work Student Action Team and Hosted by the Boston University School of Social Work*

Join Boston-area social work students and alumni for a night of Survivor testimony and education about the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC).

Date: February 6, 2012

Time: 6:00 p.m.-7:30 p.m.

Where: Boston University Photonics Building Room 211

8 St. Mary Street, Boston MA

*Come to our free event!
CEUs available!*

Participants will increase their knowledge about CSEC and learn how to help at-risk youth avoid and/or exit prostitution through Survivor testimony and an overview of area resources.

Space is limited. Please RSVP to kandberg@jri.org

The MLMC Social Work Student Action Team is a group comprised of social work students from Boston College, Boston University, Salem State University, Simmons College, and Wheelock College. The group is committed to educating the next generation of social workers about CSEC through peer education and advocacy. For more information or to join the Team, please contact Krista Andberg at kandberg@jri.org.